Eugénie Rocherolle is a composer, lyricist, pianist, and teacher. She began an early career in publishing with choral and band music. After the success of her first piano solo collection in 1978, she soon established herself as one of the leading American composers of piano repertoire. Her music is widely distributed throughout the United States and abroad.

A native of New Orleans, Mrs. Rocherolle graduated from Newcomb College of Tulane University with a BA in music. She spent her junior year in Paris and attended classes with the late Nadia Boulanger. She was honored as the 1995 Outstanding Newcomb Alumna. Her compositions have been included in the National Federation of Music Clubs Festivals Bulletin, Keys magazine and The Allison Contemporary Piano Collection of the National Guild of Piano Teachers. She was a past Connecticut State Chairman of the NFPNC's Junior Composers Contest as well as the Northeast Regional Chairman.

Mrs. Rocherolle's creative output also includes works for combined chorus and orchestra, solo voice, chamber, and musical theater. Her biographical profile appears in the International Who's Who in Music, Baker's Biographical Dictionary of 20th Century Classical Musicians, International Encyclopedia of Women Composers, Who's Who of American Women, Who's Who in the East, and The World of Women in Classical Music. For many years she maintained a private music studio where she taught piano and composition.
